

Contents

About the Editor	page xv
List of Contributors	xvii
Preface	xix
Permissions	xxiii
Introduction	1
Joel A. Nichols
1. Multi-Tiered Marriage: Reconsidering the Boundaries of Civil Law and Religion	11
Joel A. Nichols
2. Pluralism and Decentralization in Marriage Regulation	60
Brian H. Bix
3. Marriage and the Law: Time for a Divorce?	78
Stephen B. Presser
4. Unofficial Family Law	92
Ann Laquer Estin
5. Covenant Marriage Laws: A Model for Compromise	120
Katherine Shaw Spaht
6. New York's Regulation of Jewish Marriage: Covenant, Contract, or Statute?	138
Michael J. Broyde

7.	Political Liberalism, Islamic Family Law, and Family Law Pluralism	164
	Mohammad H. Fadel
8.	Multi-Tiered Marriages in South Africa	200
	Johan D. van der Vyver
9.	Ancient and Modern Boundary Crossings Between Personal Laws and Civil Law in Composite India	219
	Werner Menski
10.	The Perils of Privatized Marriage	253
	Robin Fretwell Wilson
11.	Canadian Conjugal Mosaic: From Multiculturalism to Multi-Conjugalism?	284
	Daniel Cere
12.	Marriage Pluralism in the United States: On Civil and Religious Jurisdiction and the Demands of Equal Citizenship	309
	Linda C. McClain
13.	Faith in Law? Diffusing Tensions Between Diversity and Equality	341
	Ayelet Shachar
14.	The Frontiers of Marital Pluralism: An Afterword	357
	John Witte Jr. and Joel A. Nichols
	Index	379

Detail Contents

About the Editor	page xv
List of Contributors	xvii
Preface	xix
Permissions	xxiii
Introduction	1
Joel A. Nichols
1. Multi-Tiered Marriage: Reconsidering the Boundaries of Civil Law and Religion	11
Joel A. Nichols
I. Introduction	11
II. A Short History of Marriage and Divorce Law Jurisdiction	15
III. Domestic Movement Toward Multi-Tiered Marriage	19
A. Covenant Marriage Laws (Louisiana, Arkansas, and Arizona)	20
B. New York's Get Statutes	23
IV. International Models	32
A. India	33
B. Kenya	44
C. South Africa	49
D. Canada	55
V. Conclusion	58
2. Pluralism and Decentralization in Marriage Regulation	60
Brian H. Bix
I. Current and Growing Variety and Decentralization	61
II. Four Alternative Paths to Pluralism and Decentralization	64

	A. Delegation	64
	B. Individual Contracts	65
	C. Menus of Options	66
	D. Choice of Law	66
	III. Interests in Uniformity	67
	IV. The Nature of Marriage and the Role of the State	68
	V. Limits?	71
	VI. Government Interactions with Religion	73
	VII. Constitutional Issues	75
	VIII. Conclusion	76
3.	Marriage and the Law: Time for a Divorce?	78
	Stephen B. Presser
	I. A Roiling Political Issue	78
	II. The Uneasy Relationship of the Civil Law to Marriage	81
	A. The English Common Law	81
	B. Colonial, Early Republican, and Nineteenth-Century America	82
	III. Where We Are Now	84
	A. The Right to Privacy	84
	B. The “Mystery Passage”	86
	C. “Landmarkism?”	87
	D. The Future	88
	IV. Conclusion	91
4.	Unofficial Family Law	92
	Ann Laquer Estin
	I. Marriage Celebration: Convergence and Incorporation	98
	A. Marriage Celebrations	98
	B. The Interaction of Religious and Civil Law	100
	II. Divorce Law: Conflict and Accommodation	102
	A. Legislative Responses to Religious Diversity	105
	B. Consent, Dissent, and Exit	109
	III. Marriage Norms: Prohibitions and Gatekeeping	112
	A. The Gatekeeping Function of Marriage Law	112
	B. Families Underground	115
	IV. Conclusion	117
5.	Covenant Marriage Laws: A Model for Compromise	120
	Katherine Shaw Spaht

I.	What is Covenant Marriage?	120
A.	Premarital Counseling	122
B.	Declaration of Intent	123
C.	Restricted Grounds for Divorce	124
II.	Why Covenant Marriage Statutes?	126
A.	Covenant Marriage Emphasizes Strengthening Marriage, Not Merely Preventing Divorce	126
B.	Covenant Marriage Legislation Combines Components Appealing to Political Conservatives and Liberals	128
C.	Covenant Marriage Invites Religion Back Into the Public Square to Assist in Serving a Public Whose Need is to Preserve Marriages	128
D.	Covenant Marriage Seeks to Persuade, Not Coerce, Citizens to Elect a Stronger Commitment to Marriage	129
E.	Covenant Marriage Offers Traditional Communities a Refuge from the Broader Postmodern Culture	129
F.	Covenant Marriage Offers the Promise of Surviving Migratory Divorce	130
III.	Marriage – and “Civil Marriage” and “Religious Marriage”	131
IV.	Why Not Other Options?	134
V.	Conclusion	136
6.	New York’s Regulation of Jewish Marriage: Covenant, Contract, or Statute?	138
	Michael J. Brojde
I.	Introduction	138
II.	Jewish Marriage Laws: Movement from Contract to Covenant	140
III.	Jewish Marriage Contracts and American Law	144
A.	The Enforceability of the Ketubah as a Contract	145
B.	Rabbinic Arbitration Agreements to Construct Jewish Marriages	146
C.	The New York State Jewish Divorce Laws	148
IV.	Jewish Marriage and Divorce in Practice in New York	154
A.	Prenuptial Agreements	156
B.	New York’s Get Statutes	158
C.	Opting Out of the Secular Legal System	161
V.	Other Models of Jewish and Secular Marriage Law	161
VI.	Conclusion: The Problem of Obeying Two Legal Systems	162

7.	Political Liberalism, Islamic Family Law, and Family Law Pluralism	164
	Mohammad H. Fadel
I.	Family Law Pluralism and Political Liberalism	167
II.	The Relationship of Islamic Law to Islamic Ethics	170
III.	The Scope of Islamic Family Law and its Relationship to Islamic Ethics	173
IV.	Islam and Family Law Pluralism	175
	A. Intra-Islamic Legal Pluralism and Islamic Family Law	175
	B. The Contractual Nature of Islamic Family Law	178
	C. Religious Regulation of the Family in Islam	180
	D. Marriages of Non-Muslims and Islamic Family Law	184
	E. Conclusion	185
V.	The Attractiveness of a Politically Liberal Family Law to Muslims	185
VI.	Family Law Arbitration, Religious Law, and Public Policy: The Case of New York	193
VII.	Conclusion	196
8.	Multi-Tiered Marriages in South Africa	200
	Johan D. van der Vyver
I.	Basic Principles of the South African Law of Husband and Wife	202
II.	Legalization of Customary African Marriages	203
III.	Applying Principles of Contract to Some Marriages Not Recognized Under South African Law	209
IV.	Same-Sex Marriages	213
V.	Imposing Principles of Equity and Justice from the Top Down	216
9.	Ancient and Modern Boundary Crossings Between Personal Laws and Civil Law in Composite India	219
	Werner Menski
I.	Introduction: The Realities of Pluralism	219
II.	Ancient Roots of Pluralism and Boundary Crossing	225
III.	Hindu Family Law within Composite India	231
IV.	The Tortuous Agenda of Legal Uniformity in Indian Law	233
V.	Postmodern Indian and Hindu Marriage Law	238
VI.	Post-Divorce Maintenance Laws, the Indian Constitution, and Hindu Legal Concepts	244
VII.	Conclusion	249

10.	The Perils of Privatized Marriage	253
	Robin Fretwell Wilson
	I. Lived Experiences	257
	A. Faith-Healing Communities in the United States	258
	B. Family Law in Western Thrace	261
	C. Controversy Over Shari'a Courts in Great Britain	264
	D. Summary	268
	II. Reasons for Caution	268
	A. Domestic Violence	269
	B. Child Physical Abuse and Corporal Punishment	271
	C. Child Sexual Abuse	273
	D. Summary	273
	III. Tolerance of Family Violence	274
	IV. Does Respect for Autonomy Trump Foreseeable Inequities?	279
	V. Evaluating Possible Regulatory Responses	281
	VI. Conclusion	283
11.	Canadian Conjugal Mosaic: From Multiculturalism to Multi-Conjugalism?	284
	Daniel Cere
	I. Constitutionality and Conjuality: The Civil and Religious	285
	II. From Multiculturalism to Multi-Tiered Conjuality?	293
	III. Conclusion	306
12.	Marriage Pluralism in the United States: On Civil and Religious Jurisdiction and the Demands of Equal Citizenship	309
	Linda C. McClain
	I. Introduction: The Call for More Pluralism and Shared Jurisdiction in U.S. Family Law	309
	II. Whither the Demand for More Marriage Pluralism in the United States?	312
	A. An Initial Question: Should Religious and Civil Family Law Be Congruent?	312
	B. Tensions Between Civil and Religious Law: Gender Roles and Gender Equality	318
	III. Pluralism in U.S. Family Law: Jurisdiction, Location, and Citizenship	320
	A. Religious Marriage Contracts, Religious Arbitration, and the Get Statutes	322
	B. Adjudication of Islamic Marriage Contracts: The Mahr	323

C. Resolving Conflicts Between Civil and Religious Divorce Law: Two Contrasting Cases	326
IV. International Models?	329
A. Assessing Multi-Tiered Marriage Through a Gender Equality Lens	329
B. Canada: Membership and Citizenship in Ontario's Faith-Based Arbitration Controversy	331
V. Conclusion	339
13. Faith in Law? Diffusing Tensions Between Diversity and Equality Ayelet Shachar	341
I. Privatized Diversity	343
II. The Predicament Facing Vulnerable Members of Religious Communities	346
III. Forging a New Path	349
IV. Regulated Interaction	351
V. Conclusion	356
14. The Frontiers of Marital Pluralism: An Afterword John Witte Jr. and Joel A. Nichols	357
I. Introduction	357
II. The Evolution of the (Western) Law of Marriage	361
III. Religion, Family, and the State	364
A. The Case for Shari'a Councils	366
B. The Case Against Shari'a Councils	367
C. Lessons and Analogies	370
IV. First Amendment Considerations	373
Index	379