

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	viii
1. Searching for the state	1
2. From state as official to state as machine: unifying political will	19
3. Sovereign, state and corporation: political theory and analytical jurisprudence	52
4. Civil society: the English fellowships, the state and the origins of welfare	90
5. The private life of the state: the Crown and the public sphere	131
6. Public law without a state: the new administrative justice	165
7. No rights against the state: government wrong-doing and the common law	204
8. Privatization, deregulation and reconceiving the state	241
9. Rights against the state	278
Epilogue	309
Select bibliography	311
Index	329