

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Foreword	v
Preface	ix
Table of Cases and Arbitrations	xix
Table of Legislation, Conventions and Rules	xxxv
Abbreviations and Acronymms	xxxvii
1. THE RULES OF EVIDENCE AND THEIR APPLICATION
	PARA.
Are there rules of evidence in international arbitration?	1.06
What are the rules of evidence in international arbitration?	1.11
Application of the rules of one jurisdiction to evidentiary procedure	1.17
The application of the IBA rules of evidence	1.22
2. DEPOSITIONS, INTERROGATORIES AND JUDICIAL NOTICE
Introduction	2.01
Depositions	2.04
Arbitration agreements permitting depositions in international arbitration generally	2.06
The use of depositions to obtain testimony from witnesses unable to attend a hearing	2.15
Interviewing adverse witnesses prior to the hearing	2.19
Interrogatories	2.21
General discussion	2.21
General guidelines for the use of interrogatories in international arbitration	2.23
Tribunal involvement in drafting and approving interrogatories	2.26
Judicial notice	2.28
Facts of which judicial notice may be taken	2.31
3. DOCUMENT PRODUCTION IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION
Introduction	3.01
General considerations regarding production of documentary evidence	3.05
General discussion	3.05
Customary filing deadlines	3.09
Completion of the document production phase	3.11

CONTENTS

Good faith and voluntary document production	3.13
No duty to voluntarily disclose adverse evidence	3.14
A request for document disclosure	3.16
General discussion	3.16
Timing of a request for disclosure	3.17
Conducting document disclosure without the tribunal’s involvement	3.20
Do parties have a right to limited document disclosure?	3.21
Standards applicable to a request for document disclosure	3.26
General discussion	3.26
Disclosure in arbitration versus US-style discovery	3.28
The civil law view of disclosure in international arbitration	3.31
Categories of documents: the “narrow and specific” standard	3.34
Narrow and specific: electronic documents	3.39
Not in possession, custody or control of the requesting party	3.44
Burdensome for requesting party to produce	3.46
Demonstrating possession, custody or control	3.48
Investor–state arbitration	3.52
Produce or object: the duty to provide good faith answers to a request	3.54
General discussion	3.54
Multi-parties and document production	3.56
Duty to provide good faith answers to a request	3.57
The production of documents under protest	3.60
Requests and objections (general) and the “Redfern schedule”	3.61
General discussion	3.61
Consultations between parties	3.65
General discussion	3.65
Relevance and materiality standard	3.67
General discussion	3.67
The “relevance and materiality” standard	3.68
“Relevant to the case”	3.69
“Material to its outcome”	3.73
Other standards	3.77
Failure to meet the requirements of article 3.3	3.79
Using experts to resolve document disputes	3.81
General discussion	3.81
Appointing an expert	3.82
The independence and impartiality of an expert	3.84
The role of an expert	3.85
Failure by a party to cooperate with expert	3.87
Court assistance in taking documentary evidence	3.89
General discussion	3.89
Threshold issues regarding court involvement	3.91
The scope of article 3.9	3.96
A tribunal’s authority over ancillary evidence gathering	3.102
Treatment of evidence obtained by unauthorised ancillary legal process	3.110
General powers of a tribunal to order disclosure	3.111
General discussion	3.111
A tribunal’s right to request document production from a party	3.114
A tribunal’s authority to compel a party to use “best efforts” to obtain evidence held by “any person or organisation”	3.118
A tribunal’s power to take “any steps”	3.119

CONTENTS

Offering supplemental or rebuttal evidence	3.122
General discussion	3.122
Originals, copies, forgeries and translations: the authenticity of documentary evidence	3.127
General discussion	3.127
Questions concerning the accuracy of a reproduction	3.131
Allegations of forgery	3.135
The tribunal's authority to order production of an original	3.138
Must a non-conforming copy be disallowed	3.141
Confidentiality of disclosed documents	3.142
General discussion	3.142
Transparency in international investment arbitration and confidentiality	3.151
Limitation on confidentiality: use of documentary evidence in connection with the arbitration	3.154
Exceptions to confidentiality: where confidential information is disclosed pursuant to " fulfil a legal duty "	3.156
Exceptions to confidentiality: disclosure where needed to " protect or pursue a legal right "	3.158
Exceptions to confidentiality: "to enforce or challenge an award"	3.164
A tribunal's authority to enforce confidentiality	3.165
Terms of a procedural order on confidentiality	3.167
Different phases of document production	3.174
General discussion	3.174
Document disclosure based on a substantive right	3.177
General discussion	3.177
Application of substantive law standard	3.178
Award or procedural order	3.181
Document disclosure and interim measures	3.182
General discussion	3.182
The purpose of provisional measures relating to documentary evidence	3.183
The standard applicable to requests for interim measures aimed at obtaining or preserving evidence	3.185
4. WITNESSES OF FACT
Introduction	4.01
Identification of witnesses	4.04
General discussion	4.04
Failure to give notice of witness within the specified time	4.05
Who may be a witness	4.08
General discussion	4.08
Testimony by witness with a connection to a party	4.09
Persons interested in the outcome of proceedings to be treated as a witness	4.10
Witnesses who have legal obligations of confidentiality to a party	4.13
Preparing witnesses	4.15
General discussion	4.15
Contacting adverse witnesses	4.21
The use of witness statements	4.25
General discussion	4.25

CONTENTS

A party's right to withdraw a witness statement	4.28
The time frame for submitting a witness statement	4.29
Contents of a witness statement	4.31
General discussion	4.31
Disclosure of relationship to a party	4.32
Full description of the facts	4.33
Documents accompanying the witness statement	4.38
Witness affirmation	4.42
Signature of the witness	4.44
Rebuttal witness statements	4.45
General discussion	4.45
Disregarding witness statements	4.48
General discussion	4.48
Valid reasons for non-attendance at a hearing	4.53
Exceptional reasons for admitting the testimony of a non-attending witness	4.58
Failure to call a witness to a hearing	4.60
General discussion	4.60
Court assistance in obtaining witness testimony	4.63
General discussion	4.63
The tribunal's authority over the taking of witness testimony	4.64
Court assistance in the taking of witness testimony	4.68
Considerations prior to authorising court involvement/a tribunal is not obliged to act	4.70
Other steps which are legally available to a tribunal to obtain witness testimony	4.72
Tribunal's power to call witnesses sua sponte	4.74
General discussion	4.74
"Best efforts"	4.77
5. PARTY-APPOINTED EXPERTS
Introduction	5.01
Party-appointed expert's testimony in international arbitration generally	5.05
General discussion	5.05
Identifying the expert	5.07
The expert report	5.08
The contents of the expert report	5.10
General discussion	5.10
The independence of a party-appointed expert	5.12
Factual assumptions and documents relied upon	5.17
Disclosure of an expert's instructions	5.19
Affirmation of an expert's genuine belief in the opinions expressed	5.21
Rebuttal expert reports	5.23
General discussion	5.23
Ordering party-appointed experts to meet and confer	5.25
General discussion	5.25
Summoning a party-appointed expert to an evidentiary hearing	5.30
General discussion	5.30
Failure by an expert to attend a hearing	5.31
Determining not to call or cross-examine an expert witness	5.35

CONTENTS

6. TRIBUNAL-APPOINTED EXPERTS AND INSPECTIONS

Introduction	6.01
Appointment and mandate of tribunal-appointed expert	6.04
General discussion	6.04
Determining when “specific issues” have arisen	6.07
Applying the tribunal’s own expertise to determine “specific issues”	6.15
When a tribunal-appointed expert is required by mandatory law	6.18
Expert’s terms of reference	6.19
Formalities that accompany the expert’s appointment and time
for raising objections	6.23
General discussion	6.23
Independence of an expert	6.25
The expert’s professional qualifications	6.27
Raising objections after the expert has been appointed	6.30
Investigations by tribunal-appointed expert and inspections generally	6.32
General discussion	6.32
The production of evidence at the request of the expert	6.35
Right to be heard and impartiality in the conduct of an investigation	6.37
Equal treatment and the right to be heard in the conduct of an inspection	6.39
A Party’s right to review and comment on the expert report and related matters	6.44
General discussion	6.44
Failure to allow the parties to respond to an expert’s report	6.45
The right to review the information relied upon by the expert	6.51
Opportunity to examine the tribunal-appointed expert	6.53
General discussion	6.53
Weighing the probative value of the expert report	6.55
General discussion	6.55
Attributes of a report	6.57
Adopting the full findings of the expert	6.60
Costs of tribunal-appointed expert	6.62
General discussion	6.62

7. ASSESSING THE EVIDENCE, BURDEN OF PROOF, ADVERSE INFERENCES AND PROCEDURAL GOOD FAITH

The general authority of the tribunal to admit and weigh evidence	7.05
General discussion	7.05
A tribunal’s general authority to determine admissibility and the limits of discretion	7.06
Weighing the evidence	7.11
Burden of proof, standards of proof and shifting the burden	7.15
General discussion	7.15
The burden of proof: Onus Probandi Actori Incumbit	7.17
Substantive law and the burden of proof	7.24
Standard of proof	7.27
Prima facie evidence and shifting of the burden of proof	7.32
Adverse inferences in international arbitration	7.38
General discussion	7.38
Adverse inferences relate to the merits of the case	7.40
Accepted rules for drawing an adverse inference	7.42

CONTENTS

Procedural good faith	7.44
General discussion	7.44
The duty to act in “Good Faith” and the “Duty to Cooperate”	7.46
The duty of good faith and the equality of arms	7.52
Document production generally and costs	7.54
8. EVIDENTIARY HEARING
Introduction	8.01
Notification of witnesses and the right to a hearing	8.05
General discussion	8.05
Right to a hearing	8.06
Hearing of witnesses after submission of a written witness statement	8.11
Which party may call witnesses?	8.15
Testifying by video conference	8.17
A tribunal’s control over the hearing	8.19
General discussion	8.19
Excluding witnesses from a hearing and due process	8.23
Raising objections during an evidentiary hearing	8.25
Irrelevant or immaterial questioning	8.33
Avoiding duplicative testimony (direct testimony)	8.39
Leading questions on direct examination	8.42
Sequestration of witnesses	8.43
In camera hearings	8.47
The presentation of oral testimony	8.50
General discussion	8.50
Right to cross-examination	8.52
Examining witnesses using documents	8.55
Re-direct and re-cross-examinations	8.58
Examination of a tribunal-appointed expert	8.60
Language of an evidentiary hearing	8.62
Questions by the tribunal	8.65
Witness conferencing	8.68
Hearing schedule	8.70
Affirmations and confirmations	8.75
General discussion	8.75
The administration of affirmations or oaths to witnesses	8.76
Confirmation of statement	8.82
Witness statements to serve as direct testimony	8.83
A tribunal’s authority to call a witness on its own motion	8.84
General discussion	8.84
“Any person”	8.85
No duty to order attendance	8.88
9. DISCLOSURE AND ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE
Introduction	9.01
Relevance and materiality objections to the admissibility of evidence	9.06
General discussion	9.06
Relevance to the case	9.09
Material to the outcome of the case	9.13

CONTENTS

Evidentiary privileges	9.18
General discussion	9.18
Guiding principles in determining the appropriate rule of privilege	9.20
Article 9.3(a): any need to protect the confidentiality of a document created or statement or oral communication made in connection with and for the purpose of providing or obtaining legal advice	9.25
Article 9.3(b): any need to protect the confidentiality of a document created or statement or oral communication made in connection with and for the purpose of settlement negotiations	9.32
Article 9.3(c): the expectations of the parties and their advisers at the time the legal impediment or privilege is said to have arisen	9.40
Closest connection test	9.42
The “survey” method	9.48
Article 9.3(d): any possible waiver of any applicable legal impediment or privilege by virtue of consent, earlier disclosure, affirmative use of the document, statement, oral communication or advice contained therein, or otherwise	9.54
Consent	9.56
Earlier disclosure	9.57
Affirmative use	9.59
Article 9.3(e): the need to maintain fairness and equality as between the parties, particularly if they are subject to different legal or ethical rules	9.61
Other approaches to determining an applicable rule of privilege	9.64
Objections to production based on burden	9.66
General discussion	9.66
Objective factors to consider when assessing the reasonableness of the burden	9.70
Vague or overly broad requests for the production of documents	9.74
A party’s jurisdictional background	9.75
Lost or destroyed evidence	9.78
General discussion	9.78
Evidence which has been lost due to passing of time	9.79
Loss or destruction of evidence resulting from civil disturbance or other disaster	9.82
Objections based upon commercial and technical confidentiality	9.83
General discussion	9.83
Documents subject to confidentiality agreements with third-parties	9.86
Resolving objections raised over commercial or technical confidentiality	9.88
Objections based on the special political or institutional sensitivity of the information	9.92
General discussion	9.92
Domestic laws on governmental privilege and article 9.2(f)	9.94
Compelling grounds	9.98
Sensitive documents	9.103
Example of the improper assertion of governmental privilege	9.108
Objections based on procedural economy, fairness and equal treatment	9.109
General discussion	9.109
Procedural economy	9.110
Proportionality	9.114

CONTENTS

Fairness	9.115
Equality	9.125

APPENDICES

	PAGE
1. IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence in International Arbitration (2010)	327
2. UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules (2010)	339
3. Hwang Model Procedural Order on Confidentiality	361
4. The confidentiality undertaking for third-party experts—Chemtura Corporation v Government of Canada	363
Index	365