

CONTENTS

Foreword	ix
Rosalyn Higgins
Preface	xv
Todd Weiler, Freya Baetens

PART ONE

WHERE PUBLIC MEETS PRIVATE

Introduction	3
Emmanuel Gaillard
Human Rights & Investment Tribunals Jurisprudence Along the Private/Public Divide	5
Moshe Hirsch
Public or Private Dispute Settlement? The Culture Clash in Investment Treaty Arbitration and its Impact on the Role of the Arbitrator	23
Stephan W. Schill
The Transnational Law of Contracts: What it Can and What it Cannot Achieve	45
Giuditta Cordero-Moss
Codification of the New Lex Mercatoria through the Internet: The TransLex Principles at www.trans-lex.org	79
Klaus Peter Berger
Thinking about BITs and BIT Arbitration: The Legitimacy Crisis that Never Was	107
Devashish Krishan

PART TWO

FIELD-SPECIFIC APPLICATIONS

Introduction Memories of Thomas Wälde	153
Detlev F. Vagts
Arbitration to Settle Private War-Damage Claims? The Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission Revisited	155
Hans van Houtte
Foreign Direct Investment for Development: The United Nations Code of Conduct and the Search for Balance in International Investment Rules	179
Karl P. Sauvant
Negotiated Settlement of Public Infrastructure Disputes	199
Mark Kantor
International Corporate Social Responsibility and International Law ...	223
Peter Muchlinski
The Legal Landscape of International Energy Investment After the 2008 Global Financial Crisis	245
Robert Pritchard
Investor-State Mediation: Reflections on its Feasibility from a Process Perspective	275
Ximena Bustamante

PART THREE

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW IN A WIDER CONTEXT

Introduction	305
R. Daniel Vock
International Investment Law Regime and the Rule of Law as a Pre-condition for International Development	309
Nicholas J. Birch, Borzu Sabahi, Ian Laird

An Historical Analysis of the Function of the Minimum Standard of Treatment in International Investment Law	335
Todd Weiler
States, Sanctions and Soft Law: An Analysis of Differing Approaches to Business and Human Rights Frameworks	383
Stéphane Brabant, Anna Kirk and Jonathan Proust
Positivism, New Haven Jurisprudence, and the Fragmentation of International Law	411
Tai-Heng Cheng
Beyond Fragmentation	439
Andrea K. Bjorklund and Sophie Nappert

APPENDICES: TRANSCRIPTS MEMORIAL SYMPOSIUM FOR PROFESSOR THOMAS WÄLDE

Appendix A: Part I	483
Roundtable on Cross-Cutting Issues on Energy & Natural Resources and Development—Part 1
Moderators: Arif Ali and Timothy McCrum
Contributors: William Fox, Elizabeth Bastida, Ibibia Worika, Christian Pielow, Andrey Konoplyanik, Borzu Sabahi, Graham Coop
Appendix A: Part II	495
Roundtable on Cross-Cutting Issues on Energy & Natural Resources and Development (continued)
Moderators: Arif Ali and Timothy McCrum
Contributors: William Fox, Elizabeth Bastida, Ibibia Worika, Christian Pielow, Andrey Konoplyanik, Borzu Sabahi, Graham Coop
Appendix B: Special Presentation on Foreign Investment and the Work of the UN's Special Representative on Business & Human Rights	513
Moderator: Stéphane Brabant
Contributors: Peter Muchlinski, Lorenzo Cotula, Andrea Shemberg
Appendix C: Roundtable: What does the Future Hold for International Arbitration?	526
Moderator: Tim Nelson
Contributors: Hew Dundas, Bart Legum, Mark Feldman, Sophie Nappert

Appendix D: Reflections upon the Idea of International Judicial Review	542
Moderator: Robert Voltera
Contributors: Stephan Schill, Ian Laird, Todd Weiler, Klaus Reichert
Appendix E: Roundtable on the Question of Convergence in International Law	557
Moderator: Kaj Hober
Contributors: Federico Ortino, Melaku Desta, Tai-Heng Cheng and Mark Kantor
Appendix F: Closing Remarks	574
Philip Andrews-Speed
Index	577