

Contents

List of tables and figures	v
Acknowledgements	vii
1 Introduction	1
Why bail?	1
The prison remand population in England and Wales	2
Bail law, policy and practice	7
Bail information schemes	19
2 Evaluation design and methodology	23
Aims and objectives of the evaluation	23
Research design	24
3 The Effective Bail Scheme in Yorkshire and Humberside	29
The Bail Information Pathfinder	29
The Effective Bail Scheme	30
Management of the Effective Bail Scheme	32
Staffing	32
Facilities	34
4 The operation of the Effective Bail Scheme	35
Bail conditions	37
EBS caseloads	39
EBS accommodation	41
Defendants' characteristics	44
5 The Effective Bail Scheme's work with defendants	53
Identifying needs	53
Dealing with defendants' needs	55
Assessing risk	56
Supervising defendants	57
Feedback and feed-in to the courts	62
Mentoring	63
6 Interviewees' perspectives on the Effective Bail Scheme	69
Stakeholders' and workers' perspectives	69
Defendants' perspectives	72
7 Interim outcomes of the Effective Bail Scheme	77
Breaches of bail conditions	77
Alleged offending while on bail	78
Failure to appear for court hearings	79

Bail support schemes for adults

Bail variations	79
Case outcomes	79

8 Conclusions 83

Take-up and caseloads	83
Working with defendants	86
Differences between areas	87
Outcomes	87
The future of bail support schemes	89

References 93

Appendix One 99

Figure A1 Process maps of the Effective Bail Scheme	99
---	----

Appendix Two 106

Commencements on the EBS by area	106
----------------------------------	-----

Appendix Three 107

EBS caseloads	107
---------------	-----

Appendix Four 108

EBS accommodation	108
-------------------	-----

Appendix Five 109

Accommodation caseloads	109
-------------------------	-----