

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
ANGELA CONDELLO
1. Why a book on money?	1
2. Why this book on money?	2
3. Money, social ontology, and law	3
1 Money: ontology and deception	7
JOHN ROGERS SEARLE
1. The functions of money and the definition of money	8
2. Social ontology	11
3. Status functions are created by Declaration	13
4. Money is always a status function	14
5. Further forms of deception and money	17
6. Money and deception, a summary	20
7. What is money?	21
2 The color of money	25
MAURIZIO FERRARIS
0. Introduction: which came first, the chicken or the egg?	25
1. Epistemology	27
1.1. Analysis	28
1.2. Manifest image	28

vi Contents

- 1.3. Deep structure 31
- 1.4. Pentecost or emergence 32
- 2. Ontology 35
 - 2.1. Dialectic 35
 - 2.2. Necessary condition 36
 - 2.3. Sufficient condition 38
 - 2.4. Power and form 42
- 3. Technology 43
 - 3.1. Competence without understanding 44
 - 3.2. Iteration 47
 - 3.3. The mystic foundation of authority 49

3 Socio-legal reality in the making: money as a paradigm 50

ANGELA CONDELLO

- 1. A basic social institution 50
- 2. Overview on Searle's and Ferraris's theories of money 51
- 3. Social reality and law: cross-breeding intentionality with documentality 58
 - 3.1. The symbolic socio-legal object for Searle: money as status function 60
 - 3.2. Tracing socio-legal reality: Maurizio Ferraris's documentality 64
- 4. Broadening the field: from money to legal reality 66
 - 4.1. Res, pecunia, lis 67
- 5. Conclusion: socio-legal reality in the making 69

Conclusion 72

ANGELA CONDELLO

- 1. Medium of exchange 72
- 2. Money (as law) is a social technology 74

Bibliography 76

Index 79