

Contents

1	The Definition of International Crime	1
1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	The Concept of International Crime	4
1.3	Towards a New Definition of International Crime	22
2	The Preconditions for the International Criminal Court to Exercise its Jurisdiction	27
2.1	Introduction: the Adoption of the Rome Statute and Article 12 ICCRSt	27
2.2	The Territorial Jurisdiction of the ICC	33
2.3	The Acceptance of the ICC's Jurisdiction by State Parties Pursuant to Article 12(1) ICCRSt	38
2.4	Contested Issues of the ICC's Territorial Jurisdiction: Excluded, Occupied and Disputed Territories	40
2.4.1	The Case of Excluded Territories	40
2.4.2	The Case of Occupied Territories	41
2.4.3	The ICC's Jurisdiction Over Disputed Territories or Quasi-States: the Case of Palestine	46
2.5	The ICC's Temporal Jurisdiction: Retrospective Application of the Rome Statute	60
2.6	The ICC's Jurisdiction Pursuant to the Principle of Active Personality	63
2.7	The Ad Hoc Acceptance of the ICC's Jurisdiction by a State Non-Party to the Rome Statute	70
3	The Crime of Genocide and the International Criminal Court's Jurisdiction	75
3.1	The Definition of the Crime of Genocide	75
3.2	Genocide as a Crime Under the Jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court (Article 6 ICCRSt)	79

3.3	The Mens Rea of the Crime of Genocide Under the Rome Statute	81
3.3.1	The Intent to Destroy, in Whole or in Part, a National, Ethnic, Racial or Religious Group	82
3.3.2	The Concept of a Group's Partial Destruction as a Prerequisite for the ICC's Jurisdiction	88
3.4	Current and Potentially Emerging Implications: The Rohingya Case	96
3.5	Conclusion	102
4	Crimes Against Humanity Under the ICC's Jurisdiction	103
4.1	Introduction: the Legal Development of Crimes Against Humanity	103
4.2	The Analysis of the Term "Attack" in the Context of Crimes Against Humanity	108
4.3	The Analysis of the Terms "Widespread or Systematic" and Their Proposed Interpretations	110
4.4	The Analysis of the Term "Pursuant to or in Furtherance of a State or Organisational Policy"	122
5	The ICC's Jurisdiction Over War Crimes	127
5.1	Introduction: War Crimes and Two Cases that Do Not Fall Under the ICC's Jurisdiction	127
5.2	The Phrase "Unless Otherwise Provided" and the Term "Wilful(-ly)" in Article 8 ICCRSt as Crucial Parameters for the Mens Rea of War Crimes Under the ICC's Jurisdiction	132
5.3	The Terms "Armed Conflict" and "Within the Established Framework of International Law"	138
5.4	The Meaning of the Key Term " In Particular " within the Context of a Part of a Plan or Policy or a Part of a Large-Scale Commission	139
5.5	The Meaning of the Terms "as Part of a Plan or Policy" and "as Part of a Large-Scale Commission"	143
5.6	The Meaning of the Term "Namely"	144
5.7	Exceptions to the ICC's Jurisdiction Over War Crimes: the 'Phantom' Article 124 ICCRSt	146
6	The Crime of Aggression: The Birth of a Crime	149
6.1	The Right of Declaration of War and the Crime of Aggression: Two Antithetical Notions	149
6.2	The 'Enactment' of the Crime of Aggression Under the Jurisdiction of the ICC	157
6.3	The Birth of the Crime of Aggression: The Assembly of States Parties in Kampala (2010) and New York (2017)	158
6.4	Conclusion: The Birth of the Crime of Aggression or the Birth of an Incapacitated Crime?	164

7	Immunities Under Art. 27 ICCRSt and the ICC's Jurisdiction	167
7.1	Introduction: On Article 27 ICCRSt, "Irrelevance of Official Capacity"	167
7.2	The Relationship Between Article 27 ICCRSt and Article 98 ICCRSt: Cooperation with Respect to Waiver of Immunity and Consent to Surrender	168
7.3	The Non-Compliance of the African Union with the ICC's Request for the Arrest and Surrender of Sudan's Sitting President Al-Bashir	169
7.4	Criticism of the ICC Decision on Chad and Malawi and Other Relevant Cases	173
7.5	The Necessity of a Calm and Legally Correct Analysis of Immunity in International Criminal Law	180
8	The ICC's Jurisdiction Following a Security Council's Referral of a Situation Concerning Citizens of States Non-Parties to the ICC: the Situation in Sudan and Libya (Art. 25 UN Charter & 13(b) ICCRSt)	187
8.1	The ICC's Jurisdiction Over Citizens and Territories of States that Have Not Ratified the Rome Statute of the ICC	187
8.2	The Application of Jurisdiction Pursuant to Article 13 ICCRSt	188
8.3	The ICC's Jurisdiction Pursuant to Article 13 (b) ICCRSt Read Together with Article 25 UN Charter	188
8.4	The ICC's Jurisdiction in the Situation in Sudan and Libya (Article 13 (b) ICCRSt): the Referral of States Non-Parties to the ICC Through UNSC Resolutions	192
8.4.1	The ICC's Jurisdiction in the Al-Bashir Case (Darfur Situation): UNSC Resolution 1593	192
8.4.2	The ICC's Jurisdiction Over the Situation in Libya: UNSC Resolution 1970	198
8.5	Comparing the Content of the Two Resolutions: the Omission of Article 98(2) ICCRSt in the Second Resolution Regarding Libya	200
8.6	The Temporal Jurisdiction of the ICC Pursuant to Article 13 (b) ICCRSt	201
8.7	The ICC's Jurisdiction Pursuant to Article 13 (b) ICCRSt and the Principle of Complementarity	203
8.8	Final Conclusions on the Role of the Security Council in the Cases of Sudan and Libya	205
9	The Awakening Hypothesis of the Complementarity Principle	207
9.1	Introduction	207
9.2	About the Principle of Complementarity and Its Relation to ICC Jurisdiction	209
9.3	The Complementarity Principle 'In Practice'	213

9.4	National Jurisdictions and the Office of the ICC Prosecutor: the Selection of Jurisdiction	214
9.5	The Two-Tiered Approach to Cases by the Office of the Prosecutor	215
9.6	The Complementary Nature of the ICC	216
9.7	The Hypothesis of the Complementarity Principle as a Dead Letter	217
9.8	The Issue of Voluntary Referrals	220
9.9	The Pre-Trial Chamber Decision on the Al-Senussi Case (11 October 2013)	224
9.10	The Awakening Hypothesis of Actual Complementarity	236
Table of Cases		239
Table of Legislation and Documents		249
United Nations and Other International Documents		253
United Kingdom and United States Official Documents		261
Bibliography		263
Index		275