

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Laura Davy, Franziska Felder, Rosemary Kayess, and Celia Green
2	Toward Inclusive Equality: Ten Years of the Human Rights Model of Disability in the Work of the UN Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	27
	Theresia Degener and María Gómez-Carrillo de Castro
3	What Does the CRPD Tell Us About Being Human?	47
	Franziska Felder
4	Rights, Justice and Flourishing: The Uses and Limitations of Human Rights	67
	Michaelis Michael and Karen Soldatic
5	Disability and the Dilemma of Difference	87
	Kjersti Skarstad
6	Forms of Equality, Faces of Discrimination: CRPD Article 5, Article 12, and the Disability's Difference Debate	107
	Leslie P. Francis

7	The Right to Autonomy and the Conditions that Secure It: The Relationship Between the UNCRPD and Market-Based Policy Reform	127
	Laura Davy and Celia Green
8	At the Intersection of Childhood and Disability: Improving Human Rights Protection for Disabled Children	151
	Gauthier de Beco
9	The CRPD and Mental Health Law: The Conflict About Abolition, the Practical Dilemmas of Implementation and the Untapped Potential	171
	Kay Wilson
10	Disability and Forced Migration: Critical Connections and the Global South Debate	199
	Shaun Grech and Maria Pisani
11	Intersections in Human Rights and Public Policy for Indigenous People with Disability	221
	Scott Avery
12	Examining Australia's Performance in Realising CRPD Obligations in Health Through the Lens of COVID-19	239
	Helen Dickinson, Gwynnyth Llewellyn, and Anne Kavanagh
	Index	263