

Table of contents

Preface	3
Foreword	5
Abbreviations and Acronyms	10
Executive Summary	11
Overview of the Ten Global Principles	13
References	14
Principle 1 Ensure tax offences are criminalised	15
Introduction	15
The law clearly defines the tax offences that are criminalised	16
A criminal sanction applies if the offence is proven	18
More serious offences are punishable by more serious criminal sanctions	19
A penalty regime is in place for prosecuting professional enablers	19
Criminal sanctions are applied in practice	20
References	21
Note	21
Principle 2 Devise an effective strategy for addressing tax crimes	22
Introduction	22
Identifying the risks and threats	23
Key elements of an overall strategy	24
Jurisdiction examples of strategies for addressing tax crimes	26
References	28
Principle 3 Have adequate investigative powers	29
Introduction	29
Powers to obtain third party documentary information	30
Search powers	31
Power to intercept mail and telecommunications	32
Power to search and seize computer hardware, software, cell phones and digital media	33
Power to interview	35
Power to conduct covert surveillance	36
Power to conduct undercover operations	37
Power to arrest a person	38

References	39
Principle 4 Have effective powers to freeze, seize and confiscate assets	40
Introduction	40
Rapid freezing of assets	42
Extended confiscation	42
Value-based confiscations	43
Third party confiscations	43
Non-conviction based confiscation	43
References	44
Principle 5 Put in place an organisational structure with defined responsibilities	45
Introduction	45
References	47
Principle 6 Provide adequate resources for tax crime investigation	48
Introduction	48
Financial resources	48
Human resources	49
Training	50
Infrastructure resources	50
Organisational resources	51
Data and technology resources	51
Principle 7 Make tax crimes a predicate offence for money laundering	54
Introduction	54
References	56
Notes	56
Principle 8 Have an effective framework for domestic inter-agency co-operation	58
Introduction	58
Information sharing	59
Legal gateways for information sharing	59
Models of information sharing	59
Forms of information sharing	60
Other forms of co-operation	60
References	62
Principle 9 Ensure international co-operation mechanisms are available	63
Introduction	63
References	65
Principle 10 Protect suspects' rights	66
Introduction	66
The right to a presumption of innocence	67
The right of the suspect or accused to be advised of their rights	67
The right to remain silent	68
The right to be advised of the particulars of what one is accused of	68
The right to access and consult a lawyer and entitlement to free legal advice	68
The right to interpretation and translation	68

The right to access documents and case material, also known as a right to full disclosure	69
The right to a speedy trial	69
The right to protection from ne bis in idem (double jeopardy)	69
References	70

Annex A. List of participating jurisdictions in the 2 nd edition of the Ten Global Principles	72
--	----

Annex B. Country chapters	74
---------------------------	----

FIGURES

Figure 1.1. The ability to hold entities criminally responsible	18
Figure 1.2. Maximum prison sentence for a tax offence (years) – income tax and VAT	19
Figure 1.3. Alternative sanctions imposed between 2015 and 2018 in respect of tax offences	21
Figure 7.1. Approach to including tax crimes as a predicate offence for money laundering	56
Figure 10.1. Availability of suspects rights in tax offence cases	70

TABLES

Table 1.1. Types of regimes in places for prosecuting professional enablers	20
Table 3.1. Powers to obtain third party documentary information	31
Table 3.2. Search powers	32
Table 3.3. Power to Intercept Mail and Telecommunications	33
Table 3.4. Power to Search and Seize Computer Hardware, Software, Cell Phones and Digital Media	33
Table 3.5. Power to Interview	36
Table 3.6. Powers to Compel the Giving of Information	36
Table 3.7. Power to Conduct Covert Surveillance	37
Table 3.8. Power to Conduct Undercover Operations	38
Table 3.9. Power to Arrest a Person	38
Table 4.1. Survey responses: Availability of seizing and confiscation powers in respect of foreign tax matters	41
Table 4.2. Survey responses: Availability of powers for rapid freezing orders	42
Table 4.3. Survey responses: Availability of powers for extended confiscation	42
Table 4.4. Survey responses: Availability of powers for value-based confiscations	43
Table 4.5. Survey responses: Availability of powers for third party confiscations	43
Table 4.6. Survey responses: Availability of powers for non-conviction based confiscation	44
Table 5.1. Four general organisational models	46
Table 6.1. Survey responses: Average annual budget over 2015 and 2018 allocated for the investigation of tax crimes in Euro equivalent (does not include budget for prosecution)	49
Table 6.2. Average number of full time equivalent staff responsible for tax crime investigations in 2018	49
Table 6.3. Survey responses: Access to Government Databases and Registers	51
Table 9.1. Survey responses: Numbers of EOI and MLAT requests in respect of criminal tax matters (2015-18, unless otherwise stated)	64