

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	page xv
List of Contributors	xvii
Preface	xxi
PART I DISCONTENT WITH LAW'S GOVERNANCE
1 Law's Imperfect Governance: A Diagnosis of Discontent	3
Roger Brownsword
2 Technology's Self-Governance	22
Iris Eisenberger
3 On Law's Governance of Technology	37
Ugo Pagallo
4 Tech Law: Local and Global Governance	52
Andrew Murray
PART II DISCONTENT WITH GOVERNANCE BY TECHNOLOGICAL MANAGEMENT
5 Technology's Ability to Escape the Legal System	71
Colin Gavaghan and Andrew Charlesworth
6 Problems of Technological Management: On Automated Extraction of Mental Goods	91
Przemysław Pałka
7 Agency in the Face of Artificial Intelligence	106
William Lucy
PART III TECHNOLOGY'S DISRUPTIVE EFFECTS ON LAW
8 Governance of Lawyering and Lawyering Governance of AI	123
Larry A. DiMatteo and Francisco de Elizalde

9	Adapting Consumer Law to New Technologies Christian Twigg-Flesner and Geraint Howells	151
10	Detecting Disruption: Implications for the Law’s Classifications Luh Luh Lan and Kelvin F. K. Low	170
11	Contract Law and Technological Disruption: Blenders to Artificial Intelligence Eliza Mik	188
12	Law of Private Remedies in the Governance of AI Sergio García Long	207
PART IV EVOLUTION OF LAWTECH
13	Developing Artificially Intelligent Justice Jiaying Jiang, Sidney Thomas, and Seth Frye	225
14	Regulating LawTech for Digital Systems Georgios Dimitropoulos	241
PART V GOVERNANCE BY TECHNOLOGY
15	Incomplete Interaction of Public–Private Governance in the AI Act Hans-W. Micklitz	265
16	Technologies in Environmental Governance: Two Scenarios Han Somsen	289