

Contents

Notes on Contributors VII

Introduction 1

Jannemieke Ouwerkerk, Konstantinos Zoumpoulakis, Jeroen ten Voorde and Jacob Öberg

PART 1

Conceptualising Public Goods and Legal Interests in Criminal Law

- 1 Conceptualising (EU) Legal Goods: Harm, Legal Interests and Contemporary Challenges with Implications for EU Criminal Law 15
Nina Peršak
- 2 The Concept of Legal Interest in EU Criminal Law 32
Jannemieke Ouwerkerk
- 3 Public Goods and Harm as Justificatory Frameworks for Supranational Criminalisation 52
Jacob Öberg
- 4 Supranational Public Goods in the Absence of a Supranational Public Good and the Insufficiency of Rechtsgüter 72
Stephen Coutts
- 5 Redefining Norms: Exploring EU Decriminalization through the Lens of Legal Interests 92
Konstantinos Zoumpoulakis
- 6 The Doctrine of Legal Interests and German Criminal Law 115
Martin Böse
- 7 Constitutional Limits to Criminalisation in Portugal 131
Miguel João Costa and Susana Aires de Sousa

- 8 Protecting Democracy through Criminal Law 153
Jeroen ten Voorde

PART 2

Public Goods and Legal Interests in Context

- 9 Ecocide and Climate Change: Protecting a Global Legal Interest under International Criminal Law? 179
Helmut Satzger and Nicolai von Maltitz
- 10 What Does Criminal Law See When It Recognises Something as Sexual? On the Legal Interests Involved in Sexual Offences 197
Linnea Wegerstad
- 11 What's in a Name? Fair Labelling, Legal Goods, and the Criminalisation of Image-Based Sexual Abuse 215
Marthe Goudsmit Samaritter
- 12 Drug Offences 237
Robin Hofmann
- 13 Locating Legal Interests in the Evolving Criminal Law of Money Laundering 255
Valsamis Mitsilegas
- 14 Legal Interests and Harms behind Hate Speech and Hate Crimes in the Context of EU Criminal Law 269
Marloes van Noorloos
- 15 Exploring the Added Value of European Union Anti-corruption Law 293
Cecily Rose
- Index 317